VILLAGE OF MONTEBELLO

Others Present: Warren Berbit Village Attorney

Tony reported that Mark Olson's company was chosen to do the black top remediation on "Eagle Scout Trail".

No decision has been made by the village to do the pond dredging as yet. Soil samples for the ponds will have to be tested. Martin Spence's letter of January 28, 2013 stated he review the work that AKRF has proposed and agreed with the dredging and testing, he will oversee the work of AKRF.

Park: Discussion of fence removal and relocation of at the cull-d-sac will be done in the spring.

Bob Congionti stated that the fence gate is out-of-line and is always open.

Tony will contact Martin as to why there is a gate at all?

Discussion to move the gate and reuse it at Mile Road

Clean Up Day: Bob C stated the date for clean up will be April 13 9-1. Commissioners to arrive at 8:30 at village hall, a 20 yard dumpster to be ordered instead of a 30 yard.

Put info on the clean up in the March Newsletter.

Bench Project info to go into March Newsletter as well.

Discussion on Post Cards going out for the Clean up, we voted yes for them to be sent out and 2 weeks before, not spending more than $600. - 1500 postcards, cull list to eliminate empty houses and none residence. -

Marlene Portnoy will contact Suffern High School to have students help with the Clean up day.

On December 9, 2012 Bob Congionti attended the "2012 Keep Rockland Beautiful award to honorees" held at the Rockland Country Club. Bob received a plaque, an award certificate of merit for excellence and dedication in the execution of Montebello Clean Up Day.

Summer Concert: the band "Dead on the Tracks" Doug Meyers friend of the Mayors is the contact person.

Wednesday July 11, 2013 is the scheduled date.

Camp-Out: tabled. Tony will put in the newsletter that the PC has tabled the event due to lack of interest.

No new business.
